EL PASO DIVISION

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

v.

EP-05-CR-00856-KC

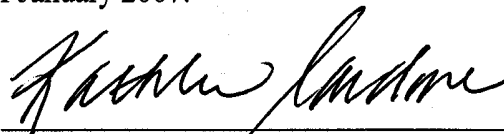

ORDER

On this day, the Court considered Defendant Ignacio Ramos' "Motion for Bond Pending Appeal" and "Motion to Extend Voluntary Surrender Date." The Court has considered the Motions and is of the opinion that the Motions (Doc. Nos. 223 and 226) should be DENIED.

With regard to Defendant's Motion for Bond Pending Appeal, because Defendant has been convicted of a crime of violence, he is eligible for release pending appeal only for "exceptional reasons" pursuant to 18 U.S.C. § 3145. The Court finds that no "exceptional reasons" exist in this case. Accordingly, the Court's previous Order is ADHERED TO. Defendant Ramos is hereby ORDERED to voluntarily surrender to his designated Federal Correctional Institution or the United States Marshal by 2:00 p.m. on January 17, 2007.

SO ORDERED.

SIGNED on this 16th day of January 2007.

UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE
